

XM Radio provides valuable services to PAID subscribers. Your attempts to block XM from providing weather and traffic information to their subscribers are ludicrous!!! Weather and traffic are public events and, as such, are public domain. What's next? Censorship of all news items deemed to be the exclusive domain of the FCC? Please leave XM Radio alone and focus your attention on more pressing problems...